

My Christmas Vacation

When Christmas vacation began, Mrs. Vettel took me home with her. She had planned a trip to Pennsylvania to visit her family over the holidays. We flew to Pittsburgh and stayed with her sister and husband.

Then she drove to Philadelphia which is at the opposite end of the state to visit with her nephew and his wife who just had a new baby. The baby's name is Ryan. Ryan has a pet dog named Ruby who is a Rotweiler. Rotweilers are very big dogs and I was a little afraid of her. She has a stuffed toy squirrel that she plays with. We had a nice visit and drove back to Pittsburgh. Later we got on another airplane and flew back to Miami to get ready to start back to school.
